

Team Leader Personal Statement

Hello, my name is Kyle Roper. I am a Senior in Business Administration with an emphasis in Management. I have been working since high school, and I have experience running a team; I was a manager at a local Noodles and Company for about two years. I currently work at FedEx 30 hours a week, and half of those hours come on the weekend. That said, my best meeting times would be weekdays and weekend mornings.

I do not like having to do the bulk of the work for my team. I am going to focus on recruiting motivated classmates who will pull their own weight. I want you to have good communication skills (responding to emails not least among them), and to not be afraid to proffer up your own opinions. I do not mind doing the final project write-ups, as I am very creative and have good editing skills.

On a more personal note, I proposed to my fiancée this past December. We both play guitar, but she's about ten times better at it than I. I love to read, and some of my favorite authors are Fyodor Dostoevsky, George Orwell, and Philip K. Dick. I value honesty, knowledge, and personal freedom. I love watching the Denver Nuggets, and I think we might finally win a playoff series this year. I graduate in May, and from there I will be moving out East, possibly near Philly or in the New England area.

I look forward to working with you, and hope we can all work hard.
